Merging with a bizarre spiritual force called Genesis, Texan preacher Jesse Custer possesses the power of "the word," an ability to make people do whatever he commands. Custer embarks on a violent and riotous journey across the country, joined by his gun-toting girlfriend Tulip and the hard-drinking Irish vampire Cassidy, witnessing dark atrocities and improbable calamities during his sojourn across America.

But an entire third of book 4 has nothing to do with the story at all. Things just start getting good at like page 215, you think there's still quite a bit to go and suddenly it's a pointless back story of a minor character for 80 pages, then what seems like a fanfic about characters not even in the story anymore.
