Gospel by Luke ...

Once again, we find the heart of the gospel message was about the person Jesus Christ. Paul did not say he rejoiced because a message of a "coming kingdom" was being preached, but that "Christ was being preached." In the book of Acts, chapter 8, we read the story where Philip preached the gospel to an Ethiopian eunuch.

Jon Tyson: Loving the Stranger is the Heart of the Gospel ...

And this act is not part of his ordinary providence in the world; it is at the heart of the gospel. Galatians 4:4-5 is as central a gospel statement as there is: "But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons."

What is the heart of the Gospel? | Drawing From The Well

The new heart has a godly impulse. It is sensitive to sin, hates its presence, discerns its subtlety, and longs for the day when it will be gone completely. Christian, your own heart will condemn you, and you need to know how to answer your own heart. The person who is far from God usually has very little awareness of sin.
